KENT, Ohio — Aug. 2, 2006 — The Australian Pink Floyd Show juggernaut is back in the United States by popular demand following its hugely successful 2005 tour. PBS 45 & 49 celebrates the show's return with a special broadcast of The Australian Pink Floyd Show on Sunday, Aug. 6 at 7 p.m. Viewers will have the opportunity to purchase advance seats for the live Australian Pink Floyd Show that will be held on Wednesday, Nov. 29 at 7:30 p.m. at Youngstown's Chevrolet Centre.

"We're very excited to present the Australian Pink Floyd broadcast event," said Lisa Martinez, vice president of marketing and development at PBS 45 & 49. "It's a great chance for fans to get a preview of the spectacular live stage show and to secure in advance seats for the Chevy Centre concert with a pledge of support to PBS 45 & 49. This program was a huge fund-raising success for us last year, and we fully expect this year's broadcast to do even better."

David Gilmour of the original Pink Floyd band describes The Australian Pink Floyd Show as "a show that truly embraces the Floyd legacy." Performing a spellbinding set with its biggest sound and lights show to date, the production explores The Best of The Wall in the first set. Having now established itself around the world, The Australian Pink Floyd Show has become one of the definitive concerts for live music audiences, with Floyd fans of all ages embracing this spectacular show.

Reserved seat tickets for the live November performance are $35 and $27.50 and go on sale Monday, Aug. 7 at 10 a.m. at www.gettix.net, www.livenation.com and all gettix.net locations including Sparkle Market stores in Youngstown, Niles and Columbiana. Tickets also may be purchased by telephone by calling 866-443-8849.
